

Behavioral and Mental Health: Design for the Next Generation of Care and Care Spaces

September 29, 2021

The Workshop

The challenges created by today's growing mental health crisis, especially in light of the pandemic, reach far beyond the behavioral health unit into a myriad of care settings. Now, more than ever, it is imperative that these settings respond to complexities of care, are flexible to respond to fluid care needs, and offer equity to patients.

To support improved care and enhance patient and staff safety, today's design, facility and care professionals have to advance their understanding of the environment's impact on behavioral health care and learn how to incorporate the best and latest design solutions throughout all healthcare settings.

This virtual workshop provides the latest in design thinking for behavioral health care and settings and offers state-of-the-art best practices through thought leader presentations, case studies, and panel discussions. Attendees will have opportunities to pose questions to workshop faculty and interact with fellow attendees in fun and innovative ways.

Agenda

Time	Agenda Item
8:00 AM PT 11:00 AM ET	Welcome Opening Remarks &amp; Introductions Avein Saaty-Tafoya, EDAC, Principal, AST Consulting
8:05 AM PT 11:05 AM ET	Opening Keynote—State of the Practice in Behavioral and Mental Health Care  How patients are treated for behavioral and/or mental health illness is an ever-evolving process of evidence-based science and clinical practice. Join this healthcare clinician and leader to hear the latest developments in the field, including levels of care, insights into demographics, and the continuum of care.  Harsh K. Trivedi, MD, MBA, President & CEO, Sheppard Pratt

8:35 AM PT 11:35 AM ET	Panel Discussion: The Evolution of Care and Design As treatments for behavioral and mental health continue to grow and evolve, it has become abundantly clear that if environments are to be effective and provide patients with health, wellness and personal autonomy, they must continually evolve as well. Led by two architects, this esteemed panel of clinicians will talk about the current and future practice and their implications for design. Shary Adams, AIA, ACHA, EDAC, LEED AP BD+C, Senior Vice President, CannonDesign Kayvan Madani Nejad, PhD, AIA, Director, Senior Healthcare Architect, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, CES   OFP   CFM Marsden McGuire, Director, Continuum of Care &amp; General Mental Health Services, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Elizabeth Czekanski, DNP, MS, RN-BC, NE-BC, VHA-CM, Mental Health Clinical Nurse Advisor, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Janine Scheiner, PhD., Retired Professor, Psychological &amp; Brain Sciences, Dartmouth College; Retired Professor of Psychiatry at The Geisel School of Medicine at Dartmouth
